PRESENT To A. Drysdale & Son.

Commisary General to the Royal Jollifier:

So the good people down there think I ain't coming, eh? Well, I an a trifle late, owing to the bad roads and Santa, Jr., going through the infantile ordeal of having another tooth, but I'll get there, and when I do, which will be this week sure, I will simply overpower them with the mag nificent grandeur and extent of my display. Right here I'll give the good tolks a little wholesome advice. By the way, did you ever try to live on ing to the eye, but advice. Advice is a grand thing, a great deal better than anti-fat; indeed it is. However, I'll Just put a bug in their ear to the effect that to see me at my best, the River Street Establishment will be the only place in your County where I will be "at home" to one and all. Like a singed cat, I'm better than I look, although they tell me I'll scare the cars, have the horses throwing flip flaps on the electric light wires, the cows taking to the best feather-bed in the house, the chickens roosting in the parlor, and the cat have been received by us in the Clothing and the streets this time, extending a personal invitation to all to inspect my past few days. imense collection of elegant wares at your popular establishment.
